Harold –

Thanks for the book. Christmas wiped me out financially and I'm very strapped for cash so please let me delay sending you money for it until the beginning of next month.

I decided not to go to Trenton after all. I would have had to go during the last week in December, and the weather was very threatening at that time.

Classes resumed yesterday and I'm running behind on time, so please excuse me for cutting this note short. More later.

Dick
